MRS. MARIE DEMAREST

Was motoring on Easton Avenue in last week of May, 1922, with her son in car owned and driven by an unknown man, and saw Mrs. Mills and Mr. Hall sitting, not close together, on a bench in Buccleuch Park near the entrance to park on Easton Avenue nearest the Parker home. Mr. Hall was pointing something out in a book to Mrs. Mills. Mrs. Demarest saw Mrs. Clarke and Gorsline standing behind a car on Easton Avenue watching Mrs. Mills and Hall.

The first week of June she saw Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills on the same bench talking; Hall was at the end of the bench, not sitting close. This time Mrs. Demarest saw Mrs. Clarke watching them from behind a bush.

On Friday, September 15, 1922, Mrs. Demarest was at her mother's home (Mrs. Schank) when Mrs. Clarke came in with a camera, two letters and a handkerchief in her hands. She laid the camera down. Mrs. Demarest asked, jokingly, if the letters were "love letters." Mrs. Clarke replied that they have to do with church matters
